Is CagLar SingLetary a master in BodybUILding?

Caglar Singletary is an ISSA-certified fitness professional who specializes in bodybuilding, among other areas such as strength building and weight loss[5]. However, there is no explicit mention in the available sources that he holds a formal "Master" title or credential specifically in bodybuilding, such as an ISSA Master Trainer or a master's degree in the field[5][6]. His qualifications do include recognized expertise and advanced certifications, but unless "master" refers to a specific, formal designation, the evidence supports that he is a highly qualified bodybuilding specialist, not necessarily a "master" by official title[5][6].
